

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO PARAGUAY ADD.2

SLOVENIA

- The Committee on the Rights of the Child has noted that the national legislation was not yet fully in conformity with the Convention on the Rights of the Child. Furthermore, the Special Rapporteur on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography reported that the practice of using children to perform domestic tasks in exchange for board and lodging is a serious problem and is not considered an offence by law. What steps is the Government taking to bring the legislation fully in line with the Convention and to prevent child labor?
- How is the Government addressing the continued wage gap and the persistence of gender-based cultural bias in society?
- What steps has the Government taken to implement the recommendations of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, in particular to address the persistence of domestic violence and the high number of child workers?
- What is the status of the envisaged bill to combat all forms of discrimination, which is under examination by the Parliament?
- What measures is the government taking to reduce the rate of illiteracy and improve access to education among the indigenous population?
